Gay GOP Leader Rails Against Law That Would Protect LGBTQ People

An op-ed from gay Republican Gregory T. Angelo blasting the Equality Act is now being used by extremists to foster opposition to it.

A super-majority of Americans support a federal law banning anti-LGBTQ housing and employment discrimination . . . but Gregory T. Angelo, the head of the Log Cabin Republicans up until November 2018, is not one of those Americans.

In an op-ed last month for the conservative Washington Examiner Angelo lambasted the proposed Equality Act declaring it a threat to religious liberties.

“Don’t be fooled by the name: The Equality Act is legislation that would compromise American civil rights and religious liberty as we know it,” Angelo writes. “All reasonable Americans, especially gay Americans who support pluralism and tolerance, should oppose it.”

Filled with inaccuracies, the commentary declares that the Equality Act “includes next to no exemptions for religious liberty.” In reality, churches would remain free to limit rentals of their property to members, and clergy members would not be required to participate in any ceremonies that go against their beliefs.

Angelo also warned that evangelical churches would have their nonprofit status stripped because of the Equality Act, and asserts that private businesses that refuse to serve LGBTQ customers would be forced to close their doors. In states and municipalities where anti-LGBTQ discrimination is already banned, religiously affiliated colleges have not lost their nonprofit status, nor has there need a large-scale closure of Christian-run businesses.

Angelo then uses the Equality Act to drive a wedge between LGBTQ people and African-Americans, alleging that the venerable NAACP doesn't support the bill because it would amend the 1964 Civil Rights Act to include protections for LGBTQ Americans. But days after Angelo made this dramatic claim, the NAACP announced it did, in fact, support the Equality Act. No correction to the text has been made thus far.

Now the Liberty Counsel . . . a conservative group so rabidly anti-LGBTQ that the Southern Poverty Law Center refers to it as a "hate group" is using Angelo's words in lobbying and fundraising emails to its followers. One email blast is titled "LGBT leader warns 'Don't fall for the Equality Act.'"

"Angelo is 100% correct on the dangers of the 'Equality Act,'" the email reads, before encouraging followers to flood their congressional representatives with message denouncing the pro-LGBTQ bill. The anti-LGBTQ group even has a pre-written letter for people to fax or mail to their representatives in Congress. The pre-made letter name-checks the "LGBTQ agenda" and claims the Equality Act "targets churches with an LGBT wrecking ball"; it also asks for money.

The Equality Act was recently introduced in the House of Representatives, backed by Democratic House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and in the Senate. It's not clear if there are enough votes in the Republican-controlled Senate to move the bill to President Trump's desk . . . or whether he'll sign it. It's also unknown if the Log Cabin Republicans support the bill; emails inquiring about the policy position of LCR's current executive director, Jeri Ann Henry, did not receive responses.

Correction: An earlier version of this article incorrectly stated Angelo believed priests would be forced to marry same-sex couples and churches would be forced to host same-sex weddings.

Monday, April 8, we approached the domicile of Ron Gloekler's residential palace at 11:50 am. Greeted by our handsome host. The interior was well appointed by artifacts from all over the world.

Tables were set up provided to play canasta. We proceeded to play with abundance of goodies, such as lemon cake, cookies, cheesecake, very delicious sloppy joe's, and various of other items of drink.

The talk was enhanced with all variable conversations, chatter, and laughter.

I would recommend Ron very highly for hosting such a great gathering.

The attendees: Tom, Michael, George, Ken, David, Toby, Rick, Joe, Al, and Larry.

OVER-EASY BREAKFAST

Jim Mickel: Reporter-At-Large

Saturday, April 13th was a cold, cloudy morning. All ten Primer Timers, who signed up, got to the Breakfast Queen Restaurant in old downtown Englewood. I had been there many years ago and knew of the parking in the back. The restaurant was very busy the entire time with people waiting when we did leave.

Everyone enjoyed their meals, and the food was excellent and quickly came to the table after ordering. We did do a lot of visiting in spite of the noise in the background. All in all it was a huge success.

Thank you, Darrel for finding another great restaurant for our monthly Over-Easy Breakfast gathering.

Looking forward to the next month's breakfast event! As fast as time goes, that will be on May 11th. Seems the weeks fly by faster and faster.

MINUTES OF THE APRIL 3rd BOARD MEETING

Toby Davis: Secretary

The meeting was brought to order by president, Dick Moore at 12:30 pm. Present were Dick Moore, president; Larry Nelson, treasurer, Larry Jeffries, membership; Charles McDonald, special events; Bob McSherry, member-at-large; and Toby Davis, secretary.

OLD BUSINESS

Dick opened the meeting by taking a vote to accept Toby Davis to replace and fill out the term of Ted Carnes, secretary. Larry Jeffries made the motion to accept and a second was made by Charles and was passed unanimously.

Larry Nelson reported on the March Financial Report. The Trade Beer Bust will be added to the April financial as the figures for March had not been recorded as yet.

Larry Jeffries reported that we now have 171 members and added one new member on April 3rd. There are only three outstanding dues for April and six past due notices were mailed out. We have lost two members to moving out of town.

NEW BUSINESS

Dick brought up the question do we need 200 calendars, do we need 150, or do we need calendars at all. Further information will be taken up at the May board meeting.

Bob McSherry reported that he had received comments about how singles seemed to feel out of place as there are mostly couples. The comment was to try and get more singles involved.

Charles McDonald suggested that members could leave a Legacy to CPT. The final was ok for members to do that but something we would not push at this time.

The May Beer Bust at Trade could be a very good one with the weather being nicer. Probably will only need six volunteers. Sign up sheet is out now.

Dick proposed that the Door Prizes at lunch should be changed to once a month starting the first Wednesday of June. Motion was made by Charles McDonald and a second made by Toby. It passed unanimously. (Recinded 4/20/2019)

A discussion about membership dues and how they apply to couples living or not living together. Should their dues be raised? Will there be Grandfathered verses New Member prices. Dick will be checking with other chapters for more information. At this time the issue was tabled.

Discussion about Christmas Party discounts are still to be discussed and reviewed.

At 1:15 pm, with no further discussions, a motion was made and seconded to adjourn the meeting. The next Board meeting will be Wednesday, May 1st.

CHOCOLATE COVERED PEANUTS

A tour bus driver is driving with a bus load of seniors down a highway when he is tapped on his shoulder by a little old lady. She offers him a handful of peanuts, which he gratefully munches up. After about 15 minutes, she taps him on his shoulder again and she hands him another handful of peanuts. She repeats this gesture about five more times. When she is about to hand him another batch again he asks the little old lady, 'Why don't you eat the peanuts yourself?' 'We can't chew them because we've no teeth', she replied. The puzzled driver asks, 'Why do you buy them then?' The old lady replied, 'We just love the chocolate around them.'

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

FOOD PANTRY: We would like to thank the many people who donated to the MCCR Food Pantry, and also those who donate their time and volunteer on Mondays. In both cases you are making a difference in the lives of people in need. Beginning June 1, the Food Pantry is going to stop providing plastic bags to our clients. We anticipate that single-use bags will be outlawed eventually, and we would like our clients to be one step closer to independence. If you are currently donating your used plastic bags to the pantry, please don't stop. For now, we can use them for various items. However, if you can donate cloth food bags from any grocery store, we will distribute them to our clients and emphasize that they need to come to the Food Pantry with their own bags.

To summarize what we need at the Food Pantry: cloth food bags, plastic food bags still accepted, pop-top cans of foods such as stew, spaghetti with meat, canned tuna, canned meat, can openers; hygiene products of all kinds, and non-persihable food of all kinds.

Thanks for your continued generosity.

Confession

An elderly man goes into confession and says to the priest, "Father, I'm 80 years old, married, have four kids and 11 grandchildren, and last night I had an affair. I made love to two 21 year old girls. Both of them. Twice."

The priest said: "Well, my son, when was the last time you were in confession?"

"Never Father, I'm Jewish."

"So then, why are you telling me?"

"Are you kidding? I'm telling everybody!"

PRIDEFEST 2019

PrideFest is fast approaching. Saturday, June 15 and Sunday, June 16.

Colorado will be celebrating PrideFest or Gay Pride, or whatever anyone wants to call it as long as it is said with PRIDE!

Webster defines pride as “reasonable or justifiable sense of one’s worth or position.” The term “pride” seems not only befitting, but actually appropriate when we think of those who have suffered and gave their lives in the struggle and hurdles we as gay men face in our daily lives.

Our task as gay men is redefining our world views and how we see each other and ourselves. The fact that we have an annual event like PrideFest can serve as a reminder that we have come as far as we have, due to our individual and collective efforts to insist upon full dignity and respect. We deserve that and it is part of our birthright. It can also serve as a measure of our continued journey to a point where an individual’s sexual orientation carries no more significance than any other part of our lives. This is a time for us to recognize what is truly unique about gay culture and the positive contribution to civilization we have given. These are ways we manifest and personify man-to-man emotions, passions and erotic bonding. How does the “love that dare not speak its name” stand up and account for itself? Few of us fully participate in the benefits of life and are still waiting nervously for an invitation to join the life that is there waiting for us. Several members of the Colorado Prime Timers did a magnificent job of explaining just what Prime Timers stand for and what the organization can do for you.

There is always a continuous line of people stopping by the booth and also many at the beer, water and soda booth asking what the Colorado Prime Timers is and what do we do. We are always selling our organization. Kudos go out to all the volunteers who have worked PrideFest. If you have never attended or volunteered to work PrideFest, it can be fun and very educating. So, come out and enjoy the fellowship of others, your fellow Prime Timers and share your talents and show your PRIDE!!!!
